Job Description

At ADA Supreme, our purpose is to help provide Americans with disabilities access to places of public accommodation, entitled under the 1990 ADA Title III, and access to online business platforms, entitled under the 1990 ADA Title IV. In the world where we live, work and play today, we believe businesses should allow access for every American. Enforcement of these rights has regretfully been done through frivolous, vexatious lawsuits and litigation filed by serial litigants and their self-serving attorney. American businesses are fed up with being sued for minor ADA violations, and are now ready to fight back. ADA Supreme is leading the way for these businesses by providing amicable resolution to existing litigation actions against American businesses and offering preventive steps to avoid the risk of being sued by serial litigants.

Our Virtual Inhouse Coordinators (VICs) are the cornerstone of ADA Supreme's efforts to bring awareness to American businesses that there are much better alternatives than expensive, stressful, time consuming and distracting defense litigation through the court system.

As a VIC, you will be provided the opportunity to grow your sales career and control your financial opportunity. Our sales professionals earn commissions that allow independence, recognition, and unlimited opportunities for personal and professional growth and development. All under a very flexible work program that allows you to work when you want, where you want, and how you want. Whether part-time or full-time, the VIC opportunity can show the world that you care about both the rights of Americans with disabilities and the rights of businesses to not get sued for minor ADA violations. By educating businesses about the ADA, showing them our wide array of solutions that respond and prevent litigation affordably, you are doing a great service to the community and the businesses that serve it.

Pairing one disabled VIC with one non-disabled VIC, you will meet new people, new business owners, after receiving company provided sales training and education on the ADA. The job is not complicated to learn, nor is the basics of the ADA that businesses struggle to navigate. Are you interested in a chance to expand your knowledge and grow your earnings? Then check out our VIC position to change your life and start an amazing career!

The Successful VIC Will . . .

- Schedule sales appointments and meet with potential customers at their business location(s), through email, or through phone calls or texts, to explain ADA Supreme's products and services.
- Schedule free consultations with ADA Supreme's certified CASp inspectors, who will inspect brick and mortar businesses to identify ADA violations.
- Schedule free website assessments by certified online accessibility webmasters, who will identify ADA website violations.
- Coordinate client appointments with ADA Supreme leadership or their certified technicians.
- Provide ongoing customer service to clients.
- Offer ongoing membership packages for existing clients, which ensures long term ADA compliance.
- Serve as a problem solver for customers by utilizing the in-depth training provided to decide on the best overall ADA compliance solution for each customer's needs.
- Make sales presentations to customers based on inspection and issues identified by addressing any questions, explaining the process and setting expectations.
- Complete proper paperwork to begin service for the customer and leverage technology (smart phone, tablet, laptop) provided for thoroughness, speed and accuracy.
- Achieve sales performance objectives through assigned leads and new business development.
- Serve as a key member of our Sales team!

We offer Company vehicle and gas card or equivalent transportation for mobility impaired VICs. We provide company tools and resources as necessary for VICs that live with any type of physical or mental impairment.

Increased commissions based on production, continuing education subsidies and company stock ownership available for tenured VICs.

ADA Supreme is a first mover in full-service ADA compliance solutions for American businesses. Since 1977, we have provided physical and online compliance solutions, retrofit construction, ongoing compliance membership programs that are second to none in regard to client service, training, education, and satisfaction. ADA Supreme is valued by cities, local Chambers of Commerce, and all organizations that support accessibility rights of Americans and the rights of American businesses to not get attacked by serial litigants.

Are you ready to take your CAREER to the next level? Requirements: We require people who have a positive attitude, strong work ethic, and good character. Unlike other companies, ADA Supreme has no physical or mental job requirements to perform VIC duties. We showcase this opportunity to disabled individuals looking to be self sufficient while doing good public services along the way.
